Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Official Guide to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition: At the City of St. Louis, State of Missouri, April 30th to December 1st, 1904 Whether the United States, and especially St. Louis and the West, will derive from the Exposition material benefits of a money value equal to its cost, is a question, sometimes asked by people who like to judge things by the profit and loss test. The richest and most universal benefits to be expected from a great, Exposition - its educational and moral benefits can not be measured in terms of dollars and cents. They are legible only in general progress, in the radiance of home life, the halo of the national life, the intelligence and magnanimous efforts of the people. In commemorating one of the most important events in the life of our Union, this Exposition has already rendered an inestimable public service by awakening a universal popular interest in the story of the Louisiana acquisition and its glorious results. It has caused a gathering here of all the nations of the earth, each bringing comprehensive representations of the best productions of its arts and industries, its newest and noblest achievements, its latest discoveries, its triumphs of skill and science, its most approved solutions of social problems. The far-reaching effect of such a vast display of mans best works on the intelligent and emulous minds of fifty or sixty millions of students, is beyond computation. Man s competitive instinct, the spontaneous lever that arouses human activity and exalts human effort, directing it to higher standards of excellence, will surely work with a high potential current here. The impulse to excel the best and...
