National Archives and Records Administration 2000 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)496801522 Subject: Records retention -- United States -- Handbooks, manuals, etc. Excerpt: . . . Program Promotion In working to develop and apply a comprehensive records schedule, the agency needs to promote and evaluate the overall records disposition program. Program promotion involves training employees, publicizing the program, helping develop and monitor electronic and other recordkeeping systems, and cultivating professional relationships inside and outside the agency. Training Proper training is an essential part of a records disposition program. Training should involve those agency personnel directly concerned with developing and applying schedules. These individuals include the agency records officer and staff, records liaison officers in central and field offices, and files custodians. NARAs introductory records disposition curriculum provides a basis for internal agency training. In addition, records officers and their staffs can keep current by participating in more advanced training offered by NARA. These training opportunities are provided by NARAs Office of Records Services-Washington, DC and the Office of Regional Records Services. These and other training opportunities are

Reviews

It is fantastic and great. It is written in easy words and phrases instead of confusing. I am just delighted to explain how this is actually the best book I have got read through during my individual life and might be the finest publication for ever.

Extensive information! It's this type of excellent study. I have read and I am sure that I will go through yet again once more down the road. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
