On Saturdays a glance into the Children s room will give proof that the bond between the Library and the teachers is strengthening as the years go by. Moreover, the number of books drawn on the teachers cards has increased 96 per cent, during the past year. Special grade shelves have been provided for the use of the teachers and care has been taken to be ready to supply the demand. With the beginning of the school year it was made possible for the teacher to draw books for class room use through the branches and reading rooms, these books being delivered from the Central Library by special messenger. This has proved a welcome innovation. Stories have been told the children every Friday afternoon and on special days, and the picture bulletins with their lists of...
