D. Foss, President, called the thirtieth session of the General Executive Committee to order in the beautiful Epworth Memorial Church, Cleveland, Ohio, Thursday morning, October 26th, at 9 o clock. For eight days the Committee was in session, and they were days crowded from early morn until late at night with social pleasure, blessed Christian fellowship, missionary enthusiasm and the development of plans for the extension of Christ s Kingdom to earth s remotest bounds. Everything combined to make the meeting one of the most successful. The weather was delightful, the church convenient and adapted to the meetings of various committees, the efficient local committee attentive to every want, the pastor in the fore-front with helpful sympathy, and large and appreciative audiences. On Thursday evening the communion was administered, and this solemn and impressive service never seemed more helpful, as members of the Committee and missionaries from the remote parts of the earth gathered about the Lord s table. Bishop Thoburn and about twenty ministers of the city assisted the pastor and presiding elder. At the close Mrs. Cowen, Secretary of the Branch, extended a very cordial welcome, to which Mrs. Keen responded. Thirty minutes at the opening of each morning session and an hour in the afternoon were given to a season of devotion, so full and rich in heart experiences as to lift every one above the weariness of the day s work. It was a cause of devout thanksgiving that the year s work had been crowned with success in all departments, and that the...
