Excerpt: .will have then been made in the science of eugenics and also in the physical, mental and moral development of the human race. Personally, I believe in the regulation of marriage by law, and that each party to the contract should be required to produce a clean bill of health. We all know that in nature like begets like, and so long as defectives are allowed to propogate their species, just so long will our jails, asylums and penitentiaries be overcrowded, and, as some philosopher has sagely remarked, the time is approaching, owing to the rapid increase in insanity, that we may have to have asylums for the sane in order to adequately protect them from the insane. I am in accord with Dr. Anderson and agree with the conclusions arrived at in his most excellent paper. Parents should be taught the danger of sending...
